In order to provide more guidance, each week I will give you a prompt. Remember to date your journal entries. PROMPT: Make a list of things that make you happy. There is an example in Unified Classroom.
We are going to look at examples of poetry by the author/poet Billy Simons. These poems are fun and entertaining, and they all relate to our current quarantine status. All poems can be found at https://www.billydraws.com/ - just scroll to the assigned day/poem! We will do a little analysis, and at the end of the week, you will try to write your own poem! All assignments are explained and uploaded in Unified Classroom.
